J. H. Sebastian and wife were visiting on the head of Red river Sunday.

Bob Roberts has moved into the property recently vacated by Anthony Lowe.

Harry Fallen has been sick for some time, and it is feared that he has typhoid fever.

Arbury Brooks, who owns two of the finest hound pups in Eastern Kentucky, would

A. J. Scott, who has been suffering with a severe case of the mumps, is about well again.

Mrs. Southey Lacy, of Lacy creek, passed through this neighborhood one day last week, inquiring about flower seeds.

Misses Sally and Monta Crucey, of Lacy creek, were visiting on this side of the Ridge Sunday.

Our young friend, Curtis Wallin, of Hazel Green, was visiting his grandpa, Charles Fallen, Saturday and Sunday.

Henry Shockey and son, Hiram, who recently moved to White Oak, Morgan county, were visiting friends in and around Daysboro the past week, and all were glad to have two such nice gentlemen in their midst.

On Sunday Calaway Sebastian was out taking a pleasure ride on a "yaller" mule. The mule fell in a mud hole, throwing Calaway in the mud almost knee deep, and got up and walked off, leaving Calaway standing "Square in the middle of a bad fix."

Harry and Alvin Higgins and some 10 or 12 other colored citizens of the Daysboro neighborhood undertook the job of clearing an acre of land for John Nickell, for which they were to receive corn and molasses. After working two or three days each they gave up the job, and they didn't get the "lasses."

We have not seen it, but enough has been told us to warrant the statement that Boone May has just completed one of the best sleds that has ever been made in Wolfe county. We don't know, but Mr. May may have brought the pattern from White Oak when he moved here. The sled is sure enough built of white oak timber, and is designed for a leaf and dirt sled, upon which Mr. May will haul leaves and dirt from the rich hill-sides to put on his level land. He seems to know just how to farm, and here is success to him and his sled.

During the tide last week Sylvester Norman, Bob Brooks, Hyatt Roberts, Wayne Parks, and our colored friend, Campbell Razor, all of this place, were running logs for J. T. Day, and went down the river as far as what is known as the "Roughs of Red River." In making around the bend of the river all the boys except Brooks and Razor got lost in the woods and were absent for six or eight hours. Campbell says Burnie Finch of Hazel Green was also along, and when they found him he was trying to talk to a deaf and dumb boy that he had found in the woods, who was hunting pine knots. Burnie was trying to make the boy understand that he was lost and did not know the way, and Burnie's maneuvering would have made a monkey ashamed of itself. But just as he had given up all hope of gaining any information from the boy, Campbell Razor was compelled to laugh, and the way he did laugh was a plenty. And the boy, thinking the woods was full of crazy people, started on a run for home. Burnie said, "Let him run, he has had lots of fun out of me."

Some one met up with Prof. —, and asked him if the wedding had gone off yet. He quickly replied, "No, and it won't if I can help myself, for I want her to help me run Jeff's farm," and he further said he hoped it wouldn't be a rainy day when he went after her.

Bro. Templeton preached to a good crowd at Sandfield Sunday. He is an able preacher of the gospel of Christ. He told the people of that love and union that should exist in the hearts of the children of God. Some of our good brethren couldn't stay, for some reason, we don't know why, but left the house. We enjoyed the preaching, for it was the unadulterated word of God.

The report that it rained "brimstone" over here last week, is false. Sensible people will not believe any such stories.

Hazel Green, the gem of the mountains, can beat the world for pretty women. But for ugly men and roguish cattle, Campton stands without a peer.

Willie Asbury went to Toliver, Sunday, to see his best girl. She was assistant postmaster here under ex-postmaster, G. T. Center, and none knew her but to love her, and none saw her but to praise.

We want to say that all the boys in the debate, at the entertainment given by the K. W. A. a short time ago, did well. Geo. Vaughn and Willie Tyler, who were on the negative, made good speeches, and a great many of the people who heard the debate said they were entitled to the decision. We have no feeling in the matter whatever.

There are three towns where men are born wise and need no schooling, to-wit: Hazel Green, West Liberty and Prestonsburg. These three towns have produced more orators than any other three towns of the same number of inhabitants in the world. There is more true manhood and true womanhood in these three towns than in any other three towns of the same population in the world. God bless these towns.

A few nights ago as Hon. A. H. Stamper was coming up from Torrent he was scared almost to death. Near Spruce Gap where Hoadly Jim Banks was burned a few years ago, he heard some unusual noise near him that caused his hair to stand alone. All of a sudden a man stepped in the road before him, having no head. Stamper shot 13 times at the ghost. Then he saved himself by flight. We have this from Stamper's own lips and cannot afford to dispute it.

Announcements.

We are authorized to announce JOHN E. GARNER, of Winchester, Clark county, as a candidate for Congress in this (the Tenth) district, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce Hon. THOS. Y. FITZPATRICK, of Prestonsburg, Floyd county, as a candidate for re-election to Congress from the Tenth district, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

WITH this issue THE HERALD enters upon the fourteenth year of its existence. To sum up what it has done and what it intends to do would occupy more space than at our command. Suffice to say that it will with each succeeding issue strive to be better, brighter and—bigger as soon as patronage justifies—and shall ever strive to be:

THE PRIDE OF THE MOUNTAINS.

Since Max O'Rell, the story told,
Which gave THE HERALD fame,
Day by day, in every mail,
Subscriptions to it came.

O, reader, hail THE HERALD,
News-sheet of Hazel Green;
The oldest, best, and truest one
The mountains e'er has seen.

At Richmond, Surrey, England,
'Tis read by Lady Cook,
Who writes for it bright essays,
And sends a handsome book.

Its columns have been read by all,
No matter where they roam;
On foreign or American soil,
It brings you news from home.

Thirteen years have drifted by
Since its initial day,
And onward! Upward! been its aim—
It knows no other way!

To advertisers it has proved
The magnet of Kentucky,
And every man whose tried its space,
In trade has been quite lucky.

To farmers 'tis a special friend,
And wants them grass to grow;
With herds of cattle grazing there,
To them more money 'd flow.

The editor will never tire,
His sentiments to show;
Remember, he has been your friend
Since thirteen years ago.

With yet a few more subscribers,
And others to advertise,
We'll enlarge the "dear old HERALD"
And resume the eight-page size.

Now, all who have not yet subscribed,
And who the news would hear,
Can have this bright and newsy sheet
AT FIFTY CENTS A YEAR.

UNDER the proper heading this week will be found the announcement of Hon. Thos. Y. Fitzpatrick, who is a candidate for re-election to Congress from this district. That Mr. Fitzpatrick has done all within his power for his people is patent to all who will consider the claims and the pensions he has secured. Handicapped by an overwhelming Republican majority, it was impossible for him to have done more. Space, however, this week precludes the proper presentation of his claims, which we defer to next week. In the meantime remember that the time honored custom has been to grant a second term by way of endorsement, and carefully consider his claims.

THE dogs of war are ready in both the United States and Spain to be turned loose. And it appears from the last dispatches that both are in a fighting humor. Mr. McKinley alone is standing in the way. When he takes his hand from off the collar of "Uncle Sam's" fighters, unless Spain makes quick tracks for her native soil, vengeance for the death of our Maine sailors and the starving Cubans will be quick, swift and awful. War is an awful expedient, but it is at hand; and may the good Lord have mercy upon the power that has driven us to it.

THE passage of the Enloe-Goebl bill seems to have knocked the wind out of the sails of all the gubernatorial candidates. Indeed, they seem to be becalmed in a dead sea. What can the matter be?

THE United States has said that the Spanish war fleet, consisting of 12 vessels, now on its way across the ocean, shall not enter Cuban waters. If necessary, shot and shell shall keep them back.

THE following card so thoroughly covers the matter that we can say but little. However, we think it will prove the master stroke for Mr. Stamper in years to come, and when he again offers for anything it will help him on the way. It is a manly card:

I take this method of informing my friends in the Tenth Congressional district that I am no longer a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the coming contest. While I was a prospective candidate I received many flattering letters of proffered friendship and support from the most prominent and influential Democrats of the district; talked face to face with a great many of the unterrified and uncompromising heroes of Democracy, who have borne the brunt of political battle and whose voices have often been heard, and as often heeded, in the councils of our party, with the very gratifying result of the assurance of their support; had a number of complimentary things said about me by the Democratic press of the district, and for all these tokens of esteem and friendship I am profoundly grateful and will, as opportunities present themselves, requite their loves. A number of untoward circumstances have conspired to bridle my ambition at the present to engage in a friendly whirl with the boys for the high honor of the Democratic nomination for Congress in the district and the still higher honor of representing it in the Fifty-seventh Congress of the United States, which will be the pleasant fate of him who secures the Democratic nomination. There are a number of estimable gentlemen aspiring to the place, any one of whom would make us an excellent congressman. Trusting that all the candidates for this place may demean themselves during the canvass as become Democrats, and that the nominee may be a man of spotless character and splendid ability, who will stand firmly on the Chicago platform, I remain, yours for Democratic success,

A. HOWARD STAMPER.
Campton, Ky., March 28, 1898.

AT a meeting of the Democratic committee of the Tenth Congressional district, held at West Liberty March 28, 1898, it was resolved that mass conventions be held in the several precincts of the respective counties on Thursday, June 18, which shall name delegates to county conventions, to be held June 18, where in turn, delegates shall be selected to the general convention at West Liberty, Thursday, June 23. Full proceeding next week.

THE board of inquiry as to the destruction of the battle ship Maine, has at last reported. They determine that it was from an external cause, supposed to have been a floating mine. After the explosion from the outside, two of the Maine's magazines exploded also. There is little doubt that there were mines located in the Havana harbor, and the Maine, by Spanish authority, was anchored over one of them.

Hon. T. Y. Fitzpatrick.

In the proper place in this paper will be found the announcement of Hon. Thos. Y. Fitzpatrick, of Floyd county, as a candidate for re-election to Congress from this district. Having always been a loyal Democrat, Mr. Fitzpatrick of course submits his claims to the action of his party.

Mr. Fitzpatrick is serving his first term in Congress, and claims that he should be given the usual endorsement of a renomination which is almost always accorded a member of Congress who has faithfully performed the duties of the position.

He will not leave his seat during this crisis in his country's history, but will remain at his post of duty, depending on his friends in the district to look after his interests.

Mr. Fitzpatrick has accomplished about as much as most men do during their first term in Congress; he has been regular in his attendance at the sessions of the house and committee meetings, and has used every endeavor to procure legislation that would be advantageous to the people of his district.

A man of commanding presence and good address, he makes friends rapidly, and that he will be a factor in the race for the nomination all agree. If nominated, there is no doubt of his election, as he demonstrated in 1896 that he was a pretty fleet footed colt in any kind of going, when he left John Langley so far in the rear.

Mr. Fitzpatrick asks the Democrats of the district to give his claims fair consideration.—Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat.

On the morning of Feb. 20, 1895, I was sick with rheumatism and lay in bed until May 21st, when I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The first application of it relieved me almost entirely from the pain and the second afforded complete relief. In a short time I was able to be up and about again.—A. T. Moreaux, Luverne, Minn. Sold by J. T. Day, Hazel Green.

A Former Citizen of Lacy Creek.

WILMER, TEXAS, March 22.
Mr. Cooper—Dear Sir: G. T. Little of this place wants to read the "dear old HERALD" for a year, for which you will find enclosed 50 cents in stamps (if they don't evaporate.)

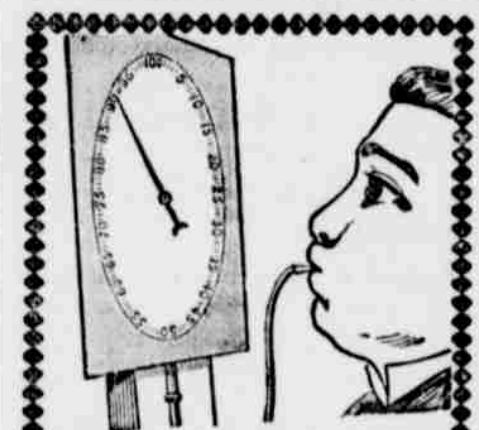

Mr. Little is a merchant at Wilmer, and a native of Wolfe county, Ky., but has been in Texas for the last 20 years. He likes to read THE HERALD better than any paper, but said that he would like for you to stretch it a little.

Weather nice and warm. Wheat and oats look fine. Some winter oats headed out, and spring oats about six inches high. Corn is from 4 to 6 inches high. Peaches, pears, plums, &c., are fine, and onions, radishes, lettuce, etc., is large enough to eat. Everything is lovely in the south. But McKinley prosperity hasn't showed up yet, unless 4 cent cotton is it. The Republican party is down in the mouth here. There were some here who wore McKinley badges of prosperity during the campaign, and they are still wearing them. But they have taken them off the lapel of their coats and now wear them on the seat of their trousers. Hurrah for W. J. Bryan and free silver at 16 to 1. Success to the railroad in Wolfe county.

With best wishes to THE HERALD and its many readers. Respectfully,
T. A. FALLEN.

Beautiful Sea Shells.

Every one admires them. Since coming south I have received numerous inquiries from northern people for sea shells, and now I am prepared to answer yes, I can send you shells, for I have made quite a collection of lovely shells, both from our own coast, the coral reefs, and some beautiful ones from the West India Islands. I will mail a dozen, no two alike, to any one who sends a stamp for postage. Yours, &c.,
MRS. F. A. WARNER,
Jacksonville, Fla.

OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

They Are the Salt of Our Staff. I hope subscribers, one and all, May read these simple lines; The names of correspondents Shall grace these tender rhymes.

There's one who signs as "CHARLIE," Of whom we proudly boast; To read his letter every week Is just as good as toast.

Now, "SHINER" wields a shining pen, I tell you 'tis a fact; He sends us news from Tolver, Or else he's off the track.

Then "UNCLE REMUS" takes a stab, With, oh, such youthful air; He seldom writes, but when he does, You bet he just gets there.

And weekly does the "TUTOR" toot Of Lee City's latest dots About the railroad coming there; On him there are no spots.

Then "SUPPLE JACK," of Campton, As supple as can be, Just sends more ink than all the rest: As you may plainly see.

In Grecian lands far, far away, Omega means the last; But from our Stillwater bridge "OMEGA" sends a blast.

There's "OLD BACHELOR," too, who writes To us a newsy letter; But I expect, to ladies fair, He gets up something better.

Amid the holly clustered there, "ROWENA," a mountain belle, Weekly writes Lane's latest news With beauty's pen, so well.

I know that all delight to take The pleasure that it brings, To read the letters "Uno" writes, This queen of Swango Springs.

From Consolation often comes A very pleasant story, Written by one surnamed "THE DRAKE," A duck chook full of glory.

Now, "SCRIBBLER," of the Jambs district, On letters ain't so slow; He sends them in quite regular, And nice ones, too, by Jo.

"STORM" writes in first-rate style, On "SUNSHINE" are no flies; Their correspondence ever greets With joy the readers' eyes.

There's "TOMMY," also "CAPT. JINKS," Who write as manner born; But, hark! Methinks I gladly hear THE HERALD's dinner horn.

SAM WILSON.

Stop the machine to eat, why, man, you're an awful cheat; but biscuit and cold beans to you, bath more charms than dollars new; well, but what's the use to chat, we may as well let her go at that.

I desire to attest to the merits of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as one of the most valuable and efficient preparations on the market. It broke an exceedingly dangerous cough for me in 24 hours, and in gratitude therefor, I desire to inform you that I will never be without it, and you should feel proud of the high esteem in which your Remedies are held by people in general. It is the one remedy among ten thousand. Success to it.—O. R. Downey, Editor Democrat, Albion, Ind. For sale by J. T. Day, Hazel Green.

The services at the Presbyterian church during the past week, conducted by Rev. Chas. Farnsworth, have grown in interest and attendance, and have been both edifying and inspiring. He has delivered some very striking discourses, and has shown himself to be in very close fellowship with his Master. Rev. Wallin, the pastor, has been untiring in his efforts to make the meeting a success, and the other pastors of the town have been present at many of the services and lent their assistance. The meeting closes tonight.

On Friday evening the 8th of April, eight young men of the H. B. and U. D. societies of the Hazel Green academy will discuss the question: "There should be government ownership and control of railway and steamboat lines, and of telegraph and telephone lines." This is an important question, and you should hear it discussed.

The store of W. T. Caskey was burglarized Friday night, but two barlow knives and nine pennies were the only articles missing. Entrance was effected by breaking through a front window, and the cash drawer was pried open with an axe. The money, however, except the nine pennies, had been removed.

How long have you been coughing—a day, a week, a month, a year? Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey will cure that cough. There can be no doubt of it, because it has cured many others equally severe. Every one should investigate the merits of this great remedy.

Regular preaching services at the M. E. church south next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock; also at night. Everybody invited.

THE HERALD will be clubbed with the following papers at the price named: HERALD and Detroit Free Press, twice a week..... $1 00 " " Louisville Dispatch, weekly..... 1 15 " " New York Tribune, weekly..... 1 00 " " Cincinnati Enquirer, weekly..... 1 00 " " Courier-Journal, twice-a-week..... 1 00 " " Louisville Post, daily.. 2 50

Mrs. John Cecil called Monday morning and subscribed for the "dear old HERALD." She said she and John had just gone to housekeeping, and couldn't think of embarking upon such an undertaking without the pleasure its weekly visits would afford them.

THE LAND OF FLOWERS.

From Which Comes the Perfume of Old Friendship for Future Fortune.

LAKE CITY, FLA., March 21.

Dear Friend: Enclosed you will find the "phiz" of your old Irish "devil," who deviled you in the days gone by, and who, from his home in the land of perpetual summer, waits to you on breezes laden with the perfume of spring time, best wishes for good fortune to you and yours.

The dreamy days of summer are with us now, the gardens are all abloom, and mother nature has put on a new spring dress of green (in honor of the patron saint of the sons of "Ould Erin.") Candidates are also ripe, and here, as in Kentucky, every other man you meet is dodging to escape the office that is seeking the man, (taken cum grano salis.)

The martial spirit has also struck us, and the old colonels are telling us kids how they fought in '61-'5, but they're peaceful now. However, if Uncle Sam needs men to uphold the dignity of the nation and the honor of "old glory," the men who followed the "stars and bars" in the late unpleasantness are ready to march, and would ask nothing better than to serve their country in Cuba under the leadership of Lee. The old sectional feeling has been obliterated and none more loyal today to the stars and stripes than the "Johnny Reb" can be found in the union. And they can fight, will fight, and to the inspiring strains of "Dixie" and "Yankee Doodle" with "Johnnie" and "Yank" marching shoulder to shoulder, Uncle Sam can lick the combined armies of the world.

I hope McKinley's backbone will stand the strain, and that he will prove himself a true American by accepting nothing less from Spain than the freedom of Cuba for our slaughtered sailors and marines. If we cannot have peace with honor, let us have war.

I noticed that a bill had been introduced in the United States senate to give the widow of the negro postmaster who was murdered in Lake City, S. C., $10,000, and it has set me to figuring. If a negro postmaster is worth $10,000, dead, how much is a live one worth? And if the government can pay $10,000 for a South Carolina negro, how much ought we demand of Spain for the murder of our 250 sailors and marines? Those interested might get an idea by remembering that during Grant's administration we accepted $80,000 as indemnity from Spain on account of the Virginias affair. And, speaking of that Lake City affair, it occurs to me that McKinley is responsible for the death of the nigger. Southern white men will never permit negro supremacy in Dixie again. They got a sufficiency once that will last them a life time. If McKinley wants to appoint negroes to positions as postmasters he shows poor judgment by sending them to South Carolina. Ohio is the place for them. The South is an unhealthy country for negro postmasters.

I compliment you on the position you took on the Goebel bill. The bill is a travesty on justice, and if it is an offspring of Democracy, it is certainly an illegitimate, and I do not think it will be acknowledged by true Democrats. I am heartily against anything that restricts the liberty and freedom of our people, and while I think the election law of Kentucky could be improved on, I do not think this Goebel bill an improvement by any means. I think Kentucky should go back to the good old way of an open ballot. Under the Australian system a man will talk one way and vote another; can profess Democracy and vote the Republican ticket, and vice versa. A man who has not the courage to vote his sentiments ought to be disfranchised for being a hypocrite, and the Australian ballot system hasn't made anything but Republicans and hypocrites since it came into vogue in Kentucky.

I see where little Willie Schooler says he's a "journalist." That's tough on Dana, Greeley, Watterson and the rest of the gang, ain't it? You and I, and the rest of the country editors are satisfied to remain ordinary scribblers, taking green cornwood and sorghum on subscription. But, Billy! he always did aspire high. He says he has traveled from the rock-ribbed coast of Maine to California's golden shores—from the ice-bound shores of Michigan to Florida's golden strand. Say, don't you suppose he just dreamed that he traveled, and mistook the French Broad river for the Pacific, and dabbled his feet in the raging waters of Triplett and imagined he was a storm tossed mariner on an angry sea? When Schooler swooped down upon Asheville, N. C., in a sunburst of glory and a pair of hand-me-down brogues, after a momentary trip over uneven cross-ties, and took a job formulating a kid and a G. Wash. press in a jim crow print shop, it was then that ideas of greatness permeated his think tank and caused it to slop over a job lot of fame. Billy imagines that Morehead is the universe and that he is the guiding star; and perhaps it is so, I don't know. "Far off cows have long horns," and viewing friend Schooler from a distance of a thousand miles, and paraphrasing the old saw quoted to mean that a "jackass is known by its bray," I naturally conclude that Schooler, as viewed from this distance and from my standpoint, is entitled to the jackass penant. So mote it be.

Well, I weary myself, and know also that you are afflicted, ere this, with that tired feeling, so I will "make even."

I hope some day to wander back to old Kentuck, but until that time you can gamble your "devil" against Schooler's "gall" that yours truly will take care of himself, even if war breaks out and he has to make a target of himself for the pastime of the Spanish. Should I not be able to dodge the conscription officer, and go forth to eat hard tack for my country, see that my memory is kept green by referring to me as "colonel" in the obituary notices. This is too pretty weather to go to war, for

"When the bulls begin to vocalize Around the pasture gate, The 'Easy Club' should organize And the liar dig his bait."

With regards to Mrs. Cooper, Warren, and old friends, I remain,

Your Irish friend,

This is to certify that we handled Nelson's Hawaiian Hair Elixir for ten months, and can truthfully say that the sale of it is phenomenal. We have sold ten times as much of it as of all other hair preparations combined, our sales amounting to over 600 bottles, seven other drug stores in the city handling it at the same time. We consider it by far the best hair preparation on the market.

Editor HAZEL GREEN HERALD.

Dear Sir—I sent you 50 cents near the last of January for one year's subscription to your paper, and haven't yet received a copy. The reason why, I don't know. Please look on your books and see if you have my name, and try to determine, if possible, the reason why I have not received my paper. Yours truly, J. M. WHEELER.

An examination of our mailing list discloses the fact that your subscription started Feb. 3, but by some mistake our mailing clerk addressed it to Salem, Nebraska. Date has been changed to 24th March, and the address to Salem, O. T. We are sorry of the mistake, but he put nearly 100 new names on that week, all of which were put in type and necessitated the changing of postoffices on some 10 galleys, and we hope you will excuse him. She'll come O. K. now.

It is, or should be, the highest aim of every merchant to please his customers; and that the wide awake drug firm of Meyers & Eschleman, Sterling, Ill., is doing so, is proven by the following, from Mr. Eschleman: "In my sixteen years experience in the drug business I have never seen or sold or tried a medicine that gave as good satisfaction as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Sold by J. T. Day, Hazel Green.

Have you a friend now living in the west, south, east, or north—anywhere, in fact, who formerly lived in this section? If so, please bring or send us the name and postoffice address and we will send them A FREE SAMPLE COPY OF THE HERALD, that will be to them like a letter from home. Send us names of ALL whose postoffice address you know. They will appreciate it and so will we. We can send 100 or 1,000; aye, 10,000, and will be glad to do so. Send us some names this week.

If YOU happen to be one of those who owe this office, PLEASE come in and pay us. To you it may seem but a small amount, but if all will pay us what they owe we can make the paper a great deal better and not be worried to death over the debts we owe. Come in today and pay up; don't delay it. If

To Cure a Cold in One Day

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund money if it fails to cure. 25c.

If you are a true friend of the "dear old HERALD," and we have always so considered you, you will now go to work and help us to get the 1,000 new subscribers which we want added to our list within the next thirty days. Go tell your neighbor the good news and induce him to subscribe. Tell your friends everywhere, and get them to take the paper at FIFTY CENTS A YEAR.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys. When urine stands limen it is positive evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail, upon the receipt of three 2-cent stamps to cover cost of postage on the bottle. Mention THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietor of this paper guarantees the genuineness of this offer.

Just before the late November election some one took from my horse a pair of fair leather saddle bags. Through a friend I have located them, and if they are returned where I can get them that will be the end of it. If not, some one will have to prove the possession.

Some Plain Facts.

Grave errors, injustice, wrongs of greater or less degree, arise from lack of knowledge of the truth, and more frequently from deception.

The most infamous case on record of deception and injustice is the attempt to demonetize silver as a money of final redemption in the United States.
